

GOVERNANCE & CONSTITUTION — OVERVIEW

The Governance & Constitution section defines the rules, structures, and processes that guide Huey's operation within the Federation model. It ensures all actions are lawful, ethical, and transparent.

Core Elements:

- Federation Model – Divides responsibilities between executive, legislative, and judicial functions.
- Preamble – States the mission, values, and guiding principles of the Federation.
- Constitutional Chapters – Define powers, limits, and processes for governance.

Governance Integration:

- All significant events are logged in the Unified Audit Log.
- Decision-making follows structured procedures to ensure accountability.

Operational Advantages:

- Clear division of responsibilities prevents power concentration.
- Transparency through documentation builds trust in decision-making.
- Adaptability – The Constitution allows amendments to meet evolving needs.

The following pages detail the Preamble and each chapter, starting with Chapter 1.
